25X1 Rumania, which, the Russians believed, had a surplus of this commodity, would be able to supply it. The Rumanian Commercial Attache [redacted]

[] was able to confirm this belief, and stated that Rumania was able to export 7,000 tons of table salt per month. Negotiations on this transaction are hanging fire for the time being, in view of the shipping difficulties involved in Rumanian ships' visiting Yugoslavia, and Yugoslav ships' visiting Black Sea ports. No decision has yet been reached on how to overcome this particular problem.
